INDIVIDUAL ADVICE AND REPRESENTATION IN CIVIL LEGAL CLAIMS

- •NLG-NYC Chapter's George Floyd/ BLM Affirmative Litigation Taskforce is available to provide comprehensive advice and possible representation to people who may have potential civil claims. If you believe the NYPD violated your rights, including to protest free from police abuse and violence, please send an e-mail to NYCCivilrights@NLG.org. Include ONLY your name, phone number, e-mail, and the date, time, and location of the occurrence.
- •The Legal Aid Society's Cop Accountability Project Complaint Clinic will support community members who were arrested and/or experienced police misconduct or brutality with hands-on legal advice and assistance with filing a Civilian Complaint Review Board Complaint, a Notice of Claim to sue the city, and much more information. A volunteer lawyer will guide you through the overall legal landscape. Please send your name, pronouns, and reliable contact information to NYCProtests@legal-aid.org or (212) 298-3303 to be contacted.

INDIVIDUAL ADVICE AND REPRESENTATION IN CIVIL LEGAL CLAIMS

- The Bronx Defenders can assist with filing notices of claim through their virtual clinic and also provide information, advice and other services for other options, including filing or participating in a Civil Complaint Review Board, Internal Affairs Bureau or NYS Attorney General Complaint if you were injured as a result of police violence in the Bronx, . Send your name and contact number, confidentially, to force@bronxdefenders.org or calling (347) 778-1266.
- Neighborhood Defender Service of Harlem provides individual advice and civil legal representation to residents of any New York City borough who have experienced violence or other misconduct by the NYPD. To access their services, visit neighborhooddefender.org/police-misconduct or call (212) 876-5500.

LEGAL SOLIDARITY AND MASS DEFENSE

- Protest jail support is on the same continuum as long-term abolitionist jail and prison support.
- All prisoners are political prisoners and all arrests are political, whether they're for a protest or not.
- We're much stronger together, both before arrest, and after.
